Student Scribes Meet Their Elder Pen Pals By Kenneth J. Souza

Students in Grades 4, 5 and 6 at Mattapoisett's Old Hammondtown School recently learned that you don't have to live miles apart to start up new friendships via the mail. That's because many of the students were either assigned or asked to volunteer to write to an elder "pen pal" in town as part of a cooperative program developed between the school and the Mattapoisett Council on Aging (COA). And this past week, students were able to meet these mysterious addressees face-to-face during a reception held in the school cafeteria.

The program began at the beginning of May, when students began a cross-town correspondence with COA members who volunteered to serve as parochial pen pals. For Ellie and Potter Trainer, it was an ideal chance to write to the students about their recent vacation. "We wrote to the kids while travelling ... it was fun and it provided us with a focus since we wrote to them from different locations," Ms. Trainer said. "I (participated) in this last year, but this was the first year for my husband. He thought the kids' letters were really interesting."

Mr. and Ms. Trainer anxiously awaited in the cafeteria as the students flooded in and immediately began asking questions of their elder guests. The couple shared an array of picture postcards which they brought back from their various visits — all of which the students passed around and examined. "They're funny ... because they tell you what they like and what they look like," Ms. Trainer said. "They asked me how old I was and I told them because I've earned the honor."

"Have you ever been to Dunkin' Donuts?" was one of the questions posed to Kenneth Stickney, another COA pen pal. "Do you have any pets? Are you married? What's your favorite TV show?"

Mr. Stickney obliged his curious friends by answering each question in turn. "I had a dog when I was little ... I've lived in Mattapoisett with my wife for the last 40 years ... I like 'Masterpiece Theater' on Channel 2."

Students like Casey Lee may use the experience as a stepping stone to a future career. Her pen pal, Bette Roberts, noted that Casey has expressed interest in writing. "Casey is going to be a very famous author someday," Ms. Roberts said. "She likes to write ... but I haven't seen any of her work other than the letters she sent me."

Ms. Roberts sat and chatted with Casey and Allison Lefebvre during the informal reception, and the two girls were intrigued by how many "jobs" Ms. Roberts has — including her role as curator at the Mattapoisett Historical Museum. "I first met Casey a few years ago when she brought a doll to the museum for (a doll) exhibit," Ms. Roberts said.

Ms. Roberts added that she has also been able to become acquainted with all the fourth graders at the school through their recent visit to the Mattapoisett

Historical Museum. "I have a lot of friends here today," she said.

Both Lee Anna Beaudry and Kelly Oliveira from Grade 6 voluntarily took it upon themselves to write to Ms. Briggs, whom they met for the first time during the reception. "Our teacher put Ms. Briggs' name on the board and we decided to write to her," Lee Anna Beaudry said. "I only wrote one letter to her ... but I plan to write to her more this summer."

One of the main topics of discussion during the period was jobs — both of the students' parents and the invited guests. Students seemed intrigued by the possibility of working in the "real world," and often asked their pen pals if they liked working. Some COA members even went into detail as to what their duties were while working in their respective careers.

Yet despite the apparent generational differences in terms of musical tastes and favorite TV shows, some things never change.

"I never liked spinach," Ms. Briggs told her two Grade 6 pen pals when discussing favorite foods. "I've tried to like it, but it still tastes the same."

Enterprise Fund which has been earmarked to cap the landfill.

Mr. Ellis pointed out in his letter that he became aware that the Town of Mattapoisett appropriated $488,344 from the Mattapoisett Landfill Enterprise Fund to defray expenses of operating the landfill for fiscal year 1998. Then Mr. Ellis pointed out that the town has on many occasions expressed that the money for that specific fund was only to be used for the closure of the landfill.

Selectman Bernier took the initiative to contact members of the DEP to find some information she needed to better understand the situation. The Board of Selectmen will inevitably have to sign the agreement between the Board of Health and the DEP involving the landfill, but Selectmen Bernier felt she had a right to know what was really going on before her signature was put on the final document.

While discussing her actions with the rest of the board, members of the Board of Health (BOH) came forward to speak. BOH Chairman Daniel Lee disagreed with Selectman Bernier's actions. He expressed his displeasure in front of the meeting and referred to Selectman Bernier as being "two-faced" and called her a "backstabber" to the town. He then stated that all the information in the letter from Mr. Ellis was wrong.

As she was about to answer these accusations, Chairman DeCosta silenced Selectman Bernier saying, "Let some other people speak, please."

At this point, Chairman DeCosta allowed residents to express their thoughts on the matter at hand. One resident stressed the town should work more closely together instead of splitting each other apart. Many others agreed, wanting the Board of Selectmen to research this matter further.

Within the next week, the board will be sending an official letter to the Board of Health, asking them to review this situation further.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening.

Southeast Regional Planning and Economic Development District (SRPEDD) to discuss an award being given to a Marion town official. Mr. Caron noted that every year, SRPEDD presents a "Special Recognition Award" to an individual, firm, or organization which has contributed time and/or effort to SRPEDD, the region, or the field of

Mr. Caron said he was pleased to announce that Marion's Executive Secretary Ray Pickles is one of this year's SRPEDD award-winners. "Ray has been Marion's Executive Secretary for more than a quarter of a century. As one of the deans of the state's Executive Secretaries, Ray is known to share his knowledge and expertise with all those in the region who ask," Mr. Caron said. "Ray Pickles is an individual who is a superlative in a Commonwealth of comparatives."

Mr. Caron noted that Mr. Pickles will receive his award at SRPEDD's Annual Meeting, which will be held on June 18 at Benjamin's Restaurant in Taunton. The Board of Selectmen echoed Mr. Caron's sentiments in selecting Mr. Pickles for this honor.

The board then met with Department of Public Works (DPW) Superintendent Rob Zora regarding the town's transfer station. Mr. Zora said he discussed with Mr. Pickles about keeping trailers at the transfer station for household trash from Marion residents and construction materials from the other three towns in the district. He wanted to set some rules as to what could and could not be taken at the transfer station.

"I wanted to know how the board felt about keeping the (Marion) transfer station open for household trash from residents ... and construction material from the other three towns," Mr. Pickles said. "I would also suggest that the district hire a person to work at the entrance (of the transfer station) to check for building permits. The idea is its supposed to be for residential trash, that's what we're contracted for."

The board agreed that continuing with this procedure would be best, and the also supported the idea of hiring a person to solely work at the entrance to make sure that other trucks and /or materials are not being brought into the transfer station. "I just feel we need to set the rules for all three towns," Mr. Zora said. "The only thing I'd like to fine tune now is the hours of operation."

At 7:15 pm the board met with Judith Rosbe of the Sippican Historical Society to discuss their pending plans for both an Architectural Study of the buildings in GOURMET FOODS • CAFE • DELI

Marion and an Archeological Study of the land in Marion. Mr. Rosbe noted that these are two projects which they have been trying to get jump-started for the past 10 years. "Right now we've got a $10,000 grant to begin the Architectural Study and we've put out a Request for Qualifications," she said. "We've been getting resumes from people ... and then we'll send out Requests for Proposals."

The $10,000 grant represents an estimated 50 percent of the total cost of the initial project, the other half of which will be paid for by the Sippican Historical Society. Ms. Rosbe said they hope to select an architectural firm and an archeological firm by July 1. "We'll then be taking a survey of homes in Marion and will make recommendations for houses which would be eligible for placement on the National Register of Historic Homes," she said.

The board was pleased with the Historical Society's plans, and noted they are anxious to see the project come to fruition. "You are to be commended for tackling this project and finally getting it off the ground," Chairman Schaefer said.

Selectman Winters also praised the project, but wanted to make it clear that this would not entail the establishing of an "historic district" in town. "The goal is not to form an historic district," he said. "And people won't be obligated to place their house on the National Register."

After approving the minutes of the June 3 meeting and signing treasury warrant #50 for the week, the board reviewed incoming correspondence, beginning with a copy of a letter from the Marion School Committee to DPW Superintendent Rob Zora, thanking him for bringing the rock to the back of Sippican School as the finishing touch for the flagpole dedicated to Joe Burke that will mark the back entrance of the building.

Mr. Zora also sent a memo advising the board that his department recently awarded a bid for a four-wheel drive, 3/4-ton pickup purchase to Cerrone GMC Truck for $25,560, and also awarded the bid for the six-

Regional Sanitarian Karen Walega next sent a letter to the board requesting that they hire an industrial hygiene consulting firm to investigate the air quality at the Marion Police Station as per recent complaints. In a letter from Craig Parker, Vice President of the Marion Police Brotherhood, Ms. Walega cited "the complaint states that police officers have headaches and feel sick when they spend time in the locker room area of the station." Ms. Walega also noted "I contacted an industrial hygiene firm ... (and they) noted this is typically a problem of not enough fresh air in that part of the building." The board agreed to forward this matter to the Board of Health and the Board of Fire Engineers for consideration.

The board next received a request from Carol Sanz regarding the Board of Fire Engineers' recent request to shut off the town fire horn as of June 10. "The public throughout the town still needs to be alerted when there are vehicles on the roads responding quickly to an emergency," Ms. Sanz wrote, "especially in the vicinity of the fire station which is surrounding by two schools and a public playground."

Town Moderator Kirby Gilmore began the proceedings by considering a Special Town Meeting within the Annual Town Meeting, which included a single article:

The Selectmen unanimously recommended the article along with the Finance Committee (FinCom). A majority of voters approved the article.

ON OLDER HOMES

Every year, twice as many American families buy older (or previously-occupied homes) than they do new houses. Depending upon the age of the home, naturally, there may be some unknown risks in the area of construction, plumbing, or wiring. However, these can be obviated by a professional inspection.

But there are also some major advantages to buying an older home. It normally contains far more space than a new home in the same price range, and there are a great many more older homes than new homes for sale which gives you a wider opportunity to make a good buy. Also, many older homes have a charm, location, and graciousness that can't be found in a new home.

True, a new home will give you fewer maintenance problems and more modern built-in appliances, however, there; is much to be said for the older home too. The best approach is to look at both and weigh the merits. We'll be happy to show you a fine selection of both older and new homes to choose from.

Call Bruce today with any of your Real Estate questions or needs. We're here to help!! 758-6738.

accept the annual report of all town officers and committees. Both the Selectmen and the Finance Committee voted unanimously to accept. Since there was no anticipated cost for this article and there was no discussion, the majority of the people voted to accept the article as presented.

Under ARTICLE 2, voters considered the Elected Town Officials Salaries for Fiscal Year 1998. Several elected town officials had their salary increases approved by the town. Included under the elected officials were the Selectmen, Town Moderator, Town Clerk, Board of Health, and Tax Collector. The public strongly opposed a raise in salaries. But the Board of Selectmen and the Finance Committee unanimously voted for the increase. The town decided to reconsider, needing a 2/3 majority vote to have an override. The public voted again and narrowly approved the salary hikes, 68 in favor, 56 against. The public did decide to raise the salaries of the Town Clerk, Tax Collector, and Highway Surveyor.

Under ARTICLE 3, voters were asked to consider and approve the town's Operating Budget for Fiscal Year 1998. A total estimated budget of $7,992,993.79 was recommended by the Selectmen and FinCom. Such funds were to be used for Board of Selectmen costs, the Town Accountant, Police and Fire Departments, town recreation, schools, and total fixed costs and other requirements.

Under ARTICLE 4, voters were asked to consider planting of shellfish in the town for propagation purposes. The anticipated costs were $300. With both the Selectmen and FinCom voicing their support, the town did as well.

Voters were next asked to appropriate $300 for residents' use of Silvershell Beach in Marion under ARTICLE 5. With both boards voting unanimously in favor of the article, the majority of people also voted in favor, without much discussion.

A similar request was made under ARTICLE 6, to fund a single lifeguard at Silvershell Beach at an estimated cost of $2,400. The money to pay the lifeguard will come from the stickers bought and Free Cash left over. With a hand vote, the article was approved by the town.

Voters were asked to approve $300 for the Tri-Town River Commission under ARTICLE 7. These funds would be used for the purpose of improving the rivers in the tri-town area, and for funds to be expended under the control of the Tri-Town River Commission. Unanimously approved by both the Selectmen and FinCom, Town Meeting voted in favor of the article.

Under ARTICLE 8, voters were asked to appropriate $2,000 for the Town Clerk's Restoration of Records. Most town records now have been kept in file form, with the new computers in line for the Town Hall, the anticipated costs for the record restoration is $2,000. A majority of voters approved the article.

Selectmen unanimously recommended this article. By a hand vote, the majority of voters agreed to approve the money for the study.

Voters were next asked to appropriate $1,142 for the Buzzards Bay Action Committee to assist the group in their efforts. A question did arise about whether this should be federally-funded. The article was unanimously recommended by the Board of Selectmen and by the majority of the Finance Committee (7-1). Voters also agreed to approve the article.

A similar request was made under ARTICLE 11, to appropriate $2,000 for the New Bedford Women's Center Shelter. There being no discussion, this matter was approved by voters.

Under ARTICLE 12, voters were asked to approve $500 for the Tri-Town Housing Cooperative. The Selectmen unanimously recommended this article, while the Finance Committee marginally recommended this article, 3 to 2. By hand vote, the majority of the people voted in favor for the appropriation.

Voters also approved $1,500 to assist with Legal Services for Cape Cod and the Islands under ARTICLE 13, despite lack of support from the Selectmen and FinCom. Mattapoisett Annual Town Meeting

June 3 and 9, 1997 By Kenneth J. Souza

For the first time in recent years, Mattapoisett's Annual Town Meeting spilled over into a third session continuing both on Tuesday, June 3 and a week later on Monday, June 9 in the auditorium of Old Rochester Regional High School. The turnout was good at all three sessions, with an average of 250 voters attending each night.

One of the first major debates of the second evening centered on ARTICLE 9, which requested an $8,500 capital outlay exclusion to purchase and install a raft at the town's bathing beach. Despite some voters' concern that the money should come from user fees (or charges assessed to those who use the beach), the Finance Committee's (FinCom) recommendation to place the $8,500 on a Proposition 2 1/2 override was approved, 210 to 40.

Voters next overwhelmingly supported (249 to 1) granting a perpetual easement to Dennis Mahoney & Sons, Inc. for pedestrian and vehicular access under ARTICLE 10; and approved 235 to 1 to transfer $4,300 from Free Cash to purchase and install fencing for the tennis courts at Center School under ARTICLE 12.

After much debate, however, voters narrowly defeated (146 in favor to 156 against) a joint venture with other area towns including Acushnet, Fairhaven, Freetown, Marion, Rochester and Westport to negotiate power supply contracts to provide electrical service to residents under ARTICLE 13.

Voters also approved a $23,000 override to purchase and equip a new car for the Fire Chief under ARTICLE 15 (275 to 10); agreed to transfer $22,000 from Free Cash to purchase a new cruiser for the Police Department under ARTICLE 18 (240 to 5); and approved a second $22,000 override to purchase another cruiser for the Police Department under ARTICLE 19 (230 to 10).

Nearly an hour of discussion and debate opened the third night of Town Meeting when voters were asked to consider borrowing $1,674,000 from the Massachusetts Water Pollution Abatement Trust to fund the construction of the Ned's Point Sewer Project under ARTICLE 20. Though some voters felt the individual betterments assessed to the residents in the Ned's Point area would be too high, the article was approved by the required 2/3 majority — 249 in favor, 6 against.

A similar project stirred the same concerns when voters were asked to approve a $283,000 override to replace a portion of the North Street sewer line under ARTICLE 21. But voters finally approved the article, 240

A third sewer project — to design and construct a sewer line along Fairhaven Road to the Fairhaven town line — was put on hold when Water/Sewer Superintendent William T. Nicholson moved that ARTICLE 22 be indefinitely postponed. Mr. Nicholson noted that further research and study was required before this project could proceed. Voters unanimously approved the motion.

Other articles which were debated but readily approved included:

• $236,000 to purchase conservation and protection of water resources in the Mattapoisett River

Animal Advice Jay Gould, DVM

WILD BABY BIRDS

I found a baby bird on the ground. What should I feed it?

Baby birds are frequently found near their nests. If the bird has no feathers, try to find the nest and put the bird back. If the bird is mobile and feathered, keep dogs and cats away from the area and the mother bird will probably feed and care for it.

I thought that if I touched the bird the mother bird would smell my scent and would reject the baby. That's an old wives' tale as birds have poor senses of smell. Allowing the mother to raise the young increases their chances of survival.

Dr. Gould can be reached at the Mattapoisett Animal Hospital (508) 758-6400 something very heavy by their tails perhaps to keep them under water to drown or enclosed to suffocate them. When rescued by Animal Umbrella, the tails on both cats were broken, obviously trying to free themselves. They were starving, dirty and covered with wood ticks.

After two weeks of rehab these orange and now white kittens are once again normal except for their short tails after amputation. They have also been neutered, vaccinated, and tested negative for cat diseases. They are extremely friendly and amazingly trusting of people. They cry pathetically when separated so Animal Umbrella has promised to find a loving home to adopt them together. If you can help these little guys start a new beginning, please call their foster mom, Susan, at 758-4044.

The group also has many moms available now who have been spayed after caring for their kittens. They are mostly a year or younger. Once again it is kitten season and any donations of food and litter are greatly appreciated. Monetary donations can be sent to 11 Ridgewood Road, Mattapoisett. Animal Umbrella also has

South and Front Streets). Peter Smith, the curator of the Marion Historical Society, will be the speaker. Refreshments will be served, and the event is free-of-charge and and open to the public.

Marion is the town Pete Smith loves. He has spent many years studying and collecting things about Marion. Along the way, he discovered a wonderful history of Marion that could be told just by the picture postcards produced in and about Marion. Mr. Smith was born in Marion and has lived there for sixty-two years. He attended Sippican Elementary School and Tabor Academy.

In 1961, he graduated from Nichols College with a degree in Business Management, and then returned to Marion. For the past ten years, he has been on the Board of Directors at the Marion Historical Society, and has served as its treasurer for the last eight. During that time, a deep friendship was nurtured between Pete and the then long-time curator, Ed Tripp. Pete spent many years engaged in discussion on one of their favorite topics: Marion's history. He even recorded Mr. Tripp's lectures on the subject.

After Mr. Tripp's passing two years ago, Pete Smith was appointed to take his place, bringing with him the stories of Mr. Tripp and his own enthusiasm for his hometown of 62 years. Pete Smith's lecture on Marion in picture postcards gives an exciting overview of Marion's history. The lecture entertainingly follows the route of the old Memorial Day Parade, as he shows slides from his extensive postcard collection. Recently, Pete Smith has been a special guest on Frank Macnamee's program on cable television, "Antiquing."

"Mass Hysteria" in Fairhaven

The Greater New Bedford region has, over the years, had many famous characters that affected the area through business and/or politics. One of these personalities will be on hand to welcome all to a colorful musical satire about well-known people and politicians of the State of Massachusetts.

This satirical comedy will be presented by the Boston-based group "Mass Hysteria" at the Fairhaven Town Hall Auditorium on Friday night, June 27 at 7:30 pm. Mr. Henry Huttleston Rogers, Fairhaven's benefactor, will be on hand to greet the guests of one of the beautiful buildings that he gave to the Town of Fairhaven. "Mass Hysteria" will not be including Mr. H. H. Rogers in their musical satire, but they will be including another famous Mr. Rogers as well as other well-known "Mass" people such as Ted Kennedy, Governor William Weld, Ray Flynn, Mayor Mineno, Julia Childs, and even Nancy Kerrigan.

This entertainment is being presented by the Rotary Club of Fairhaven to kick off the Homecoming Fair and other weekend activities. The tickets are $10 per person and proceeds will benefit the Rotary Club's Scholarship Fund that offers financial grants to collegebound students from Fairhaven, Acushnet, and Mattapoisett.

Tickets may be purchased at the Millicent Library

French Student Hosts Needed

With only a few weeks to go, host families are still needed in the Rochester/Marion/Mattapoisett area for several French students, ages 14 to 15, from July 7 through July 27. The weekly schedule includes three to four planned activities to Boston, Cape Cod, Newport, Plymouth, as well as shopping and beach days.

The role of the host family is to provide a bed (no extra room is necessary), an occasional bag lunch, transportation to a drop-off spot, and offer the American family life! Host family children may participate in many of the activities as well. This is a wonderful opportunity to make lifelong friendships.

Program Coordinator is Carol Kaner, a foreign language teacher at Fairhaven High School. For more information, please call 979-4051 or 758-4302. Teachers who host a student will receive a certificate with two hours per day for 21 days toward PDP's.

Help for Working Families

The Tri-Town Early Childhood Advisory Council announced the continuation of a program called Help for Working Families. Through a Community Partnerships grant, the Old Rochester Regional School District has been able to assist families with working parents in paying for the care/education of their three- and four-year-old children.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 21 young children and their families received subsidies based on a sliding scale, according to family income. Participating early childhood programs included Camp Massasoit, Little People's College, Circle of Friends, the Children's Depot, and Kerry Riggs, family child care provider.

Any families residing in Marion, Mattapoisett, or Rochester with children aged three or four whose parents are working at least part-time are eligible to apply. Families may choose from a number of local preschool programs, child care centers, and summer camps. The subsidy is available to families whose income falls below the state median income. This guideline offers assistance to a wide range of families. For example, a family of four may earn up to $54,000 and still qualify for help.

For more information, please contact the Early Childhood Office at 748-1863.

Parody sours into pulp despite talented cast of Cons in Air

By Rob Gonsalves

Con Air. Starring Nicolas Cage and John Malkovich. Directed by Simon West. Running time: 112 minutes. MPAA rating: R. At General Cinema 8 in North Dartmouth.

Con Air, the latest hyperbolic video game passing itself off as a movie, plays as though it started out as a smarter, more parodic script — an action flick subverting action flicks. Well, we'll have none of that postmodern stuff, not in a Jerry Bruckheimer production. Con Air is sometimes exciting in a brutish, stupid way, and it isn't as flamboyantly inept as last summer's The Rock, produced by Bruckheimer and his late partner Don Simpson (Bruckheimer flies solo here). Still, on some level, the movie doesn't seem to be in on its own jokes.

You'd think that the Die Hard rip-off school of action films had played itself out, but this genre apparently does die hard. Here, the Bruce Willis figure is Nicolas Cage as Cameron Poe, a paroled convict who finds himself on the same flight as a dozen rabid prisoners plotting an escape. Poe, a former Army ranger, inadvertently killed a scuzball in a fight and got eight years in jail. Now he just wants to get home to his wife and meet his little daughter, born during his prison stay. He even has a birthday gift for the girl: a stuffed bunny.

The bunny is a good indication that the script, by Scott Rosenberg, was intended as a deadpan goof on stupid action flicks. Rosenberg wrote two of the wittier films of recent years, Things To Do In Denver When You're Dead and Beautiful Girls, and Con Air may have been his backhanded salute to frat-boy cinema. But Jerry Bruckheimer and rookie director Simon West (he did Budweiser's talking frogs) aren't on the same page as Rosenberg. They treat Con Air as a serious stupid action flick.

ENTERTAINMENT

The quirky cast is meant to attract moviegoers who wouldn't usually bother with this stuff, but the brightest lights here — John Malkovich as the lead psycho, John Cusack as a determined marshal, Steve Buscemi as a quiet, contemplative serial killer — are merely competent, doing things you've already seen them do expertly elsewhere. In an interview for US magazine, Malkovich admitted he did Con Air for the money and marquee value that might help bankroll the projects he wants to do, and that seems to be why everyone else is slumming here.

Everyone, that is, but Nicolas Cage. It may actually be easier to be great in Leaving Las Vegas than to be good in this empty spectacle; Cage throws himself into his character the way he always does, and his lack of irony is refreshing. He believes in Poe's gallantry and chivalry, and he makes you believe in Poe's simple-hearted need to see his little girl and give her that bunny. With anyone else in the role, the movie would be even more ridiculous that it already is.

After a while, the plane makes a forced landing in Las Vegas, the capital of excess — a satirical point that loses its punch in a movie whose excesses make Vegas look like a monastery. We get the whole macho dictionary: explosions, gory deaths, car crashes, and a swishy convict who exists only for a few cheap homophobic laughs. Not much of Con Air is fun — just frantic and oddly insecure, as if the ghost of Don Simpson had haunted the set, demanding more noise and less brains. Or maybe that ghost is the mass audience. Hard to tell, these days.

In the year 1946, Henry B. Smith, Sr. opened a wholesale watch repair business on 8th Street in New Bedford, known as Jewelers Service. This was the start of a repair shop for the trade, from Hyannis to Worcester to Fall River. At the height of the business, around 1968, J.S. employed seven full time watchmakers and 10,000 watches a year.

In 1973, with the advent of the quartz watch, J. S., with foresight purchased a small jewelry business in Wareham and opened as an independent jeweler known as Smith and Neil.

In 1980 J. S. was incorporated with S. & N. and in 1984 J. S. ceased all trade work Henry B. Smith, Jr. now faced with this loss of trade business, went to school and became a G.I.A. graduate gemologist and jewelry repair man as well as watch maker.

We are now a full service jewelry store, with appraisals, remounts, designs, and engraving as well as mechanical and quartz watches and all jewelry repairs. All done on the premises.

This Week's Horoscope

by Linda Black

Aries (March 21-April 19). You could fall in love. Your work takes longer than planned, partially because there's more of it than expected.

Taurus (April 20-May 20). Buy real estate or something for the house. Romance is good, but money is tight. Do something fun and cheap. Catch up on your reading.

Gemini (May 21-June 21). Study and give speeches. Don't break new ground — go over a topic you already know. A friend could give you fits.

Cancer (June 22-July 22). Be careful you don't spend too much or you'll have a terrible case of buyer's remorse.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22). Take action — you're brilliant. Don't loan a friend money; it's a bad bet. Besides, you owe it to somebody else.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Accept a new assignment and finish an old one. You're strong, but don't sass an older person.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). A meeting will go very well. Make major decisions. Private matters dominate your schedule.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). Comply with an authority figure to get what you want. Finish doing what's required. Discuss your group's financial needs.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). A long-distance contact pays off. Follow through with a promise you made. Accept constructive criticism as best you can.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Make a big decision concerning money. Sell something you don't need anymore. You'll have a strong urge to travel, but you may be stuck at work.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Let a wise partner or an attorney help you decide. Give back something you borrowed. Make a detailed list of the things you need and go shopping.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20). Launch a new service project. Review your plans and put in revisions. Get a person who knows the way to lead you through a maze.

If You're Having a Birthday This Week: Learn to be a leader this year by doing the homework. The decision's already been made. Follow through on it.

Mr. McColl recently had a one-man show at the Braitmayer Art Gallery and will present his colorful paintings at the Art Center with the "Gardens in Stone" theme in mind.

Sarah Brown is a professional artist whose light and airy watercolors adorn many homes and commercial buildings in the area. She is also planning to exhibit some hand-painted three-dimensional pieces in this show. Ms. Brown is known for her florals and landscapes, perfect subjects for this group.

Both galleries at the Marion Art Center will be used for this installation. Admission is FREE. Gallery hours are Tuesday through Friday, 1:00 to 5:00 pm, and

Tails 'N' Trails Club

The Mattapoisett Tails 'N' Trails 4-H Club sets up a window exhibit every year. This year the theme was "4-H Is..." and they finished it by adding "A Treasure Chest of Knowledge." Seven white clipper ships with names such as Sportsmanship, Horsemanship, Leadership, and Fellowship traveled the ocean until they found a treasure chest filled with gold horseshoes. This display was set up at Old Hammondtown School and earned the club first place in Plymouth County.

He's Back...

This week and every week to follow we are hiding the aardvark in The Wanderer once again. For those of you not familiar with this practice, here's how it works. Each week we hide a little aardvark (shown above, actual size) somewhere in the newspaper (not counting the aardvark above). If you find him (or even if you don't) you can send in a postcard with your name, address, and phone number to the address below to enter our Aardvark Drawing! This week we are giving away an "I found the Aardvark" lapel pin. Send entrees to: Aardvark, P.O.. Box 102, Mattapoisett, MA 02739.

club's annual horse show was a huge success and they were able to give a $400 donation to a local family plus a yearly donation to St. Jude's Hospital. But this success went further to help purchase sweatshirts for members represented at state-level competitions, hold horsemanship clinics in equitation, braiding manes and tails, blanketing, wrapping legs, and lunging and trailer safety. Some members attended a Horse Clinic held at UMass Amherst and the club hosted a day-long judging of Miniature Horses, Clydesdales, and Quarter Horses plus held a great Christmas party and year-end Awards Banquet.

A few members volunteered their time and horses to help the UMass Dartmouth Equestrian Team run their Intercollegiate Horse Show, and the club also donated food to the shelter in New Bedford and gathered a food basket at Thanksgiving. The Rochester Woman's Club was so generous in allowing the club to use their building and some members, in turn, helped them get their 1997 calendars mailed out.

This year, the 4-H Club hopes to have that great support from the community again. The club members are now seeking sponsorships. A portion of the proceeds this year will be donated to "Hearts and Hands," a local organization helping families with medically-fragile children. The club hopes you will be generous with your support.

As you can tell, the 4-H Club is truly "A Treasure

DO IT YOURSELF?

You'll Have Only Yourself To Blame!

Installing a gas or electric water heater is a job for a licensed plumbing professional. Only your plumber can provide the expertise required to do the job right the first time and suggest the right water heater to give you years of trouble- free service and all the hot water you'll ever need.

We recommend energy efficient, versatile water heaters from Bradford White. They are the perfect choice for the value-conscious homeowner. Bradford White water heaters come with a 2-year parts warranty, the exclusive VITRAGLAS tank lining and your choice of a 5, 8, or 10-year product warranty.
